

The purpose of this e-mail is to encourage all first year advisors to utilize the Beginning College Survey of Student Engagement (BCSSE) Student Advising Report at course advisement appointments. As you may recall, the Student Advising Reports are an additional tool for you to utilize in the advising process that may assist you in gaining insight in a students' preparation and expectations for college.

The other purpose of this e-mail is to determine the usefulness of the Student Advising Report. Please respond to the following questions. You may reply via e-mail or print off this e-mail, write in answers and send through campus mail. Thank you for your feedback!

1) Did you utilize the BCSSE Advising Report?

YES NO

2) If so, how helpful did you find the report in gaining insight into the students' preparation and expectations for college?

Very Helpful Somewhat Helpful Not helpful

3) If you have not utilized the BCSSE Advising Report, do you plan to do so?

YES NO

4) If you are not planning to utilize the report, please indicate why you do not plan to utilize the report.

Please provide any additional comments: